

Edward Jones First Annual Charity Golf Tournament

The Edward Jones First Annual Charity Golf Tournament is dedicated to raising resources in support of positive community initiatives. The beneficiaries of this year's tournament are two worthwhile charities in our community, London Promusica Outreach Program and The Hospice of London.

London Promusica is a vibrant mixed-voice choir organized and run by its members. London Promusica is dedicated to providing a cultural and social service through benefit concerts in local and regional communities. They also facilitate access to concert performances for the young, for those residing in senior facilities, and those with limited access to the arts.

Hospice of London provides palliative and bereavement support to hundreds of individuals and their families living in London and the surrounding area. Hospice of London was founded on the belief that care should not only be focused on physical health needs, but must also be compassionate and aimed at improving quality of life.
